

Writing Strong Topic Sentences

Worksheet 2 of 5 from the Paragraph Writing series.

Objective

Learn how to write focused and engaging topic sentences that clearly introduce the main idea of a paragraph.

What Is a Topic Sentence?

A topic sentence is the first sentence in a paragraph. It tells the reader what the paragraph is about—the main idea you'll be explaining or describing. A great topic sentence does three important things:

1. States the main idea clearly – It tells the reader exactly what to expect in the paragraph.
2. Is focused and specific – It doesn't try to cover too many ideas at once.
3. Gets the reader interested – It gives a reason to keep reading.

Examples:

✗ Too Vague: "Sports are fun."

Why it doesn't work: It's too general and doesn't give direction for the paragraph.

✓ Strong Topic Sentence: "Playing team sports like soccer and basketball teaches students important skills like cooperation and discipline."

Why it works: It clearly states the topic, gives focus, and hints at what the paragraph will explain.

PART 1: What Makes a Strong Topic Sentence?

Directions: Read each sentence below. If it is a strong topic sentence, write ✓ in the box. If it is too vague or off-topic, write ✗ and briefly explain what's wrong.

Sentence

✓ / ✗

Why?

1. Dogs are cool.

2. My dog, Ranger, once chewed through a couch.

3. Dogs make excellent pets because they are loyal, playful, and can be trained to help people.

4. There are many different types of animals in the world.

5. Having a pet can teach kids responsibility.

PART 2: Rewrite the Vague Topic Sentence

Directions: Rewrite each weak topic sentence to make it more focused and engaging.

1. Weak Sentence: I like food.

Stronger Topic Sentence: _____

2. Weak Sentence: School is okay.

Stronger Topic Sentence: _____

3. Weak Sentence: Books are fun.

Stronger Topic Sentence: _____

4. Weak Sentence: Summer is a time when things happen.

Stronger Topic Sentence: _____

PART 3: Write a Topic Sentence from a Prompt

Directions: Read each prompt and write a clear topic sentence that introduces the idea of the paragraph.

1. Prompt 1: You want to explain why video games can be educational.

Topic Sentence: _____

2. Prompt 2: You're writing a paragraph about your favorite season.

Topic Sentence: _____

3. Prompt 3: You're writing about the importance of recycling.

Topic Sentence: _____

PART 4: Turn Your Idea into a Topic Sentence

Directions: Write down something you know a lot about or enjoy. Then turn it into a strong topic sentence for a paragraph.

1. My Idea: _____

2. My Topic Sentence: _____

Answer Key

PART 1: What Makes a Strong Topic Sentence?

Sentence	✓/✗	Why?
1. Dogs are cool.	✗	Too vague; doesn't explain what the paragraph will focus on.
2. My dog, Ranger, once chewed through a couch.	✗	Too specific; sounds like a detail, not a topic sentence.
3. Dogs make excellent pets because they are loyal, playful, and can be trained to help people.	✓	Clear and focused; gives main idea and preview of support.
4. There are many different types of animals in the world.	✗	Too broad; doesn't focus the paragraph.
5. Having a pet can teach kids responsibility.	✓	Focused and makes a point that can be explained in a paragraph.

PART 2: Rewrite the Vague Topic Sentence

(Answers may vary—examples provided)

- I like food.
Trying new foods from different cultures is one of my favorite ways to learn about the world.
- School is okay.
School can be a fun and valuable place when teachers make learning exciting.
- Books are fun.
Reading mystery novels keeps me entertained and helps improve my vocabulary.
- Summer is a time when things happen.
Summer is my favorite season because it means freedom, travel, and warm weather activities.

PART 3: Write a Topic Sentence from a Prompt

(Answers may vary—sample responses provided)

1. Prompt: Why video games can be educational

Video games can be powerful learning tools that improve problem-solving and reading skills.

2. Prompt: Favorite season

Autumn is my favorite season because of the cool weather, colorful leaves, and festive holidays.

3. Prompt: Importance of recycling

Recycling is essential because it reduces waste, saves energy, and helps protect the environment.

PART 4: Turn Your Idea into a Topic Sentence

(Responses will vary)

1. My Idea: Basketball

2. My Topic Sentence: Playing basketball helps me stay healthy, learn teamwork, and release stress.
